MOSAIC LAW

This is at once the fullest and presumably, the most familiar of the codes of ancient times. In the BOOK of LEVITICUS are 2 codes: The Law of HOLINESS and the Priestly Code.

The Law of Holiness was compiled during the EXILE and nearly conforms to the Priestly Code, which was presented to the Jewish community at Jerusalem.

through EZRA & NEHEMIAH and finally adopted as binding law in 444 BC. These codes are both religious and moral

444 BC

Nehemiah's return to Jerusalem signalled the start of work on Jerusalem's walls.

This was about 70 years after the TEMPLE had been completed

4445c

The new wall of Jerusalem was finished in 52 days. The neighboring tribes particularly the Samaritans wanted to stop the reedification of Jerusalem. The speedy filling up of holes and patching up of gaps in the walls reflect the pressure of the time factor and the feverish anxiety with which the work went forward.

Nehemiah set out to rebuild Jerusalem. 3 men (TOBIAS the Ammonite; GESHEM the Arabian; Sanballat the Hroite)
wanted to stop him.

Nothing they plotted, even murder was successful. All workers held their tools in one hand and a weapon in the other.
